Reporting on the appeal petition of Dasarihalli Gowdre — — —

In pursuance of an amicable settlement effected between Rao Bahadur & his Co-Sharers, the Petitioners the Shanbhogs of Narsimmanahalli & Dinamagatahalli which form one charge.

The Deputy Commissioner did not recognise that arrangement and on 9th March 1892 passed the order in favour of Lakkaminarasappa son of the last holder Shamanna, though the arrangement had been confirmed & the decree of Shamanna's Court in Lakkaminarasappa had conferred on him the Shanbhogi of another village, Hemdere. Dasarihalli appealed against this order.

The Sub-Dy Commr states that "Dasarihalli contention is to all sound... It would have ceased all future dispute if the arrangement which the parties had arrived at among themselves had been confirmed."

A Revenue Appeal was filed about 3 years after the date of the Deputy Commr's order. A reference was made to the Deputy Commr regarding the Petrs explanation why that no answer was given to the petition addressed to him & that he was at last told verbally that the late Deputy Commr's order could not be interfered with. This letter contains the Deputy Commr's observations on this point.

The Deputy Commr says that the fact that Petr obtained a copy of

It will be observed from the same that out of 6 petitions herein mentioned one rejected to the Sub-Division Officer, Chickballapur, for disposal and handed to the Amildar of Gowdadore for report and returned by him to this office three in number and they do not seem to have any important bearing on the point at issue by the object of the enquiry made by your docket under reply is to ascertain whether or not the petitioner slept over his right of appeal and whether the appeal presented by him to Government 3 years after the Order appealed against was passed by my produced by Hafiz Abdul Rahman to arrive.

3. The remaining petitions and the connected papers, together with the records received with your docket index acknowledgment are herewith submitted as per list attached thereto. The Miscellaneous annual petition called for by you have been filed with the enclosed proceedings.

It is clear that a copy of the order appealed against was delivered to the petitioner on the 6th February 1890 or upwards of 2 years prior to the presentation of this appeal to Government, though he has evidently been at no pains of gaining time, refrained from referring to it in, or producing it with, his appeal petition into which he has put another copy of the order subsequently obtained by him in February 1892.

5. Two appeal petitions received with your official memoranda noted in the margin are herewith returned.

missioner issued an order on 9th March 1889, that the Shanbhogi right of all the Villages should be in the name of the Respondent, and that the Patail Offices should remain as they were. The Deputy Commissioner has not given his reasons for not complying with the request of the parties, but from the records it appears that Respondent mother presented a petition to the Deputy Commissioner on 7th March, stating that the Shambhogi right of Narasimhanthalli was acquired by her husband, and that the Shambhogi right of all the villages should be registered in the name of herself and her second son. Probably the Deputy Commissioner did not wish to go into the matter and simply gave the order he passed. The Respondent is unable to show that he has exclusive right to any of the offices nor that he was not aware of it when he gave his consent. Government therefore direct that the offices be registered in the names of the several parties according to their settlement in 1889. If Respondent's brother has any claim he may assert it in due course.
